

I am against deleting the 5wpm code for the amateur radio Tech Plus license. The code needs to remain part of getting an amateur license, the frequencies allocations for code must remain. Morse code is part of getting a license, it always has been and always should be. I don't want amateur radio to become another CB.

Jonathan Case      KE9KW